

CHRISTIAN YOUTH IN ACTION JUNE 17-28, 2024

www.cefwesttexas.com/cyia

What is CYIA?

CYIA is training and preparation to reach children with the good news of Jesus Christ. It includes:

Pre-training on how to present the Gospel to children.

Classes on teaching Bible lessons, verses & missions to children; to lead songs and games.

Teaching practice clubs for children back home in your chapter area.

Who Can Participate?

CYIA is for teens 13-19 who:

- Are believers in Christ—and have been for at least one year.
- Agree with CEF's Statement of Faith.
- Are willing to be trained.
- Will commit to work with a team of other teens to reach children with the gospel.
- Desire to grow in their faith.

When & Where?

May & Early June: Pre-training in your chapter area.

June 17-22: Preparing together in Levelland at South Plains College with students from across WTX.

June 24-28: Practice 5-Day Clubs and evaluation back home in your chapter area.

All applicants will be interviewed*

Training Plan

Students can be part of one of these tracks during training:

BibleTrack (for those who will teach Bible lessons)

Missionary Track (will focus on teaching missions and more)

Advanced (for 3rd-year students and above)

Our goal is to disciple students and help them serve God.
