Serving God

What is CYIA?

CYIA is training and preparation to reach children with the good news of Jesus Christ. It includes:

- Pre-training on how to present the Gospel to children.
- Classes on teaching Bible lessons, verses & missions to children; to lead songs and games.
- Teaching practice clubs for children ... and continue reaching out to children in July.

Who Can Participate?

CYIA is for teens 13-19 who:

- ◇ Are believers in Christ—and have been for at least one year.
- ◇ Agree with CEF's Statement of Faith.
- ◇ Are willing to be trained.
- ◇ Will commit to work with a team of other teens to reach children with the gospel.
- ◇ Desire to grow in their faith.

When & Where?

May & Early June: Pre-training in your chapter area.

June 15-20: Preparing together in Levelland at South Plains College with students from across WTX.

June 22 -26: Practice 5-Day Clubs and evaluation back home in your chapter area or another area.

Training Plan

Students can be part of one of these:

- ◇ BibleTrack (for those who will teach Bible lessons)
- ◇ Missionary Track (will focus on teaching missions and more)
- ◇ Advanced (for 3rd-year students and above)

Each training track includes discipleship and service opportunities.

*All applicants will be interviewed

* We also have a program for 11-12 year olds.
